Newsletter For March 2014

I have been getting calls about proposed cuts in Social Security and Federal Employee benefits. This is the time of year that these proposals are in the air. I will report on changes when they are beyond speculative.

Federal Employees will probably not have a self plus one choice on their 2015 health insurance. The law says it can start as early as next year, but the Office of Personnel Management (OPM) is aiming for 2016.

As news arises, I will send out special updates.
